SPOTLIGHT ON THE MONTH OF MARCH

March is the 3rd month of the year and was named for the Roman god of war, Mars. However, when the Roman Julian calendar was first introduced with 10 months, March was the first month of the year.

Did you know the days of the week that dates are on in March are the same as February? For example, February 1 was on a Saturday and in March it is also Saturday. However, when Leap Year occurs with a 29-day February, this does not happen. And what is the meaning of the saying “March comes In like a lion and out like a lamb”? Some folks believe it refers to the stormy weather that can occur at the start of March and the milder weather at the end of the month. But it could also be astronomical because the constellation Leo (lion) rises in the east at the beginning of March and Aries (lamb) sets in the west as March concludes.

Although there are no Federal holidays in March, there are plenty of important days to celebrate. There are only three months that do not have Federal holidays: March, April and August.

March 4 is Mardi Gras or “Fat Tuesday” or Shrove Tuesday. March 5 is Ash Wednesday which marks the beginning of Lent. The idea of Mardi Gras is a day to celebrate and party before the 6 week period of fasting in Lent that follows.

March 9 is the start of Daylights Savingd Time. In Arizona we do not switch to daylight savings time, but our neighboring states do “spring forward”. It is the time of year when Nevada and California are on the same time zone as Arizona.

March 15 is the Ides of March. Legend surrounds this ill-fated day. Hence the saying: Beware the Ides of March. It was definitely not a good day for Julius Ceasar.

March 17 is St. Patrick’s Day when Corned Beef and Cabbage and Green Beer are popular and folks are “wearing ‘o the green”. Oddly, green has become the symbolic color of St. Patrick. However, as a Bishop his color was blue. Since 1961, in Chicago, a city with a high Irish population, the Plumber’s Union has been dyeing the Chicago River green as part of traditional St. Patrick’s Day festivities. Green is also thought to be the color of luck and Lucky Leprechons are prominent in celebrating St. Patrick’s Day.

March 20 is Vernal or Spring Equinox which marks the first day of Spring.

The month of March is also important in the sports world with March Madness and Spring Training Baseball. Although Spring Training began on February 26, most of the games are played in March with the season ending on March 26. March Madness is the NCAA Basketball Championship Tournament. It starts on March 19 with a field of 68 teams. The National Championship game will be April 7.

Enjoy the March celebrations and if you are a baseball fan, we will soon be saying “Play Ball”.

ANTHONY'S SPORTS CORNER

MLB Pre-season has started. The regular season starts on March 18-19 with a two game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers vs. the Chicago Cubs to be held in Tokyo, Japan. The rest of the regular season will run from March 27 to September 28. Hopefully, the Arizona Diamondbacks will have a great season like they have the last two years.

The Phoenix Suns are in 11th place in the Western Conference with a record of 27-30. The NBA playoffs start April 19. I believe they will not make it this year unless they start winning the rest of their games.

March Madness is just around the corner for Men's and Women's College Basketball. It will start on March 18 with 68 teams playing to get to the Final Four. The Final Four games will start April 5 in San Antonio, Texas. The NCAA Men's College Basketball National Championship will be April 7. The NCAA Women's College Basketball Championship will be April 6 in Tampa, Florida. March Madness is always fun to watch. Maybe we will see a lot of upsets like last year.

NASCAR is in Austin, Texas on March 2 at the Circuit of The Americas Race. On March 9, they will be in Phoenix, Arizona at the Phoenix Raceway.

The Vegas Golden Knights are in 1st place in the Pacific Division in the Western Conference with a record of 34-18. The regular season ends on April 17 and the playoffs will start April 19. It's probably safe to say that the Vegas Golden Knights will make the playoffs.

NFL draft will be April 24-26 in Green Bay.

As always, you can watch your favorite sporting events at The Fisherman's Landing Bar. Until the next issue, keep watching sports, my friends.

Good morning, Meadview Community. This month, we will celebrate St. Patrick's Day on March 17 and welcome the Spring Equinox on March 20. This is a great time to check out gardening books to see when to plant for the best results in your garden. Check out Drought Tolerant Plants by Jane Taylor or Gardening in Dry Climates by Scott Millard. If you would like guidance on these or any other books, please come by the library. We are always happy to help. Let's capture the essence of Spring!

To find new items at your library online, follow these steps:

1. Refer to your library card number as your user ID name and your password which is often a 4-digit number assigned or chosen by you. If you don't know it, stop in the library to get it. With that information, log into the library website at www.mohavecountylibrary.us
2. Click on the house icon on the left located under the main banner.
3. Choose your category of new books beginning with the New York Times Best Sellers. Place your item on hold for pickup at your local branch using the "Place Hold" button under the item you would like to receive.

The Friends of the Library will meet on March 15 at 3:00 pm. Everyone is welcome to join us.
