If These Walls Could Talk...

By Sharon Baur

The Meadview Historical Society will host a building plaque unveiling at the Post Office at 9:00 am on September 5. Most of us have driven past the building countless times. We stop there to pick up our mail, send a package or perhaps visit the Outpost. It is such a familiar part of Meadview that we may never have stopped to wonder: What was this building before it became our Post Office?

The answer may surprise you. The building located at 250 East Pueblo Drive has been a part of Meadview for more than four decades and during those years, its walls have witnessed a fascinating piece of our community's changing history. Long before residents walked through its doors to collect their mail, the building served Meadview in ways that many of today's residents may never have heard about.

Who built it? What was its original purpose? How many different businesses and community activities have called it home? And how did this well-traveled little piece of Meadview history eventually become the Post Office we know today?

We're not going to tell you just yet. On Saturday, September 5, the Meadview Historical Society invites the community to join us at 9:00 am at the Meadview Post Office for the unveiling of a new Historical Structure Marker commemorating the history of this familiar Meadview landmark. Come discover the story for yourself—and perhaps learn that a building you thought you knew has a few surprises left to tell.

The celebration doesn't end there. After the unveiling, follow us over to The Barn Event Center where we'll turn from celebrating Meadview's past to celebrating some of the talented people who are part of our community today. From 10:00 am until 2:00 pm, the Meadview Historical Society will host a Community Artists Exhibition featuring original work by local artists. Come meet the artists, see their work, visit with friends and neighbors and enjoy an Ice Cream Social as we spend the day celebrating Meadview's history, creativity and community spirit.

From the story of a familiar building to the work of the people who call this area home, September 5 will be a day to celebrate something that belongs to all of us—our community. The Meadview Historical Society hopes you'll join us.

ANTHONY'S SPORTS CORNER

The NFL is back. The Arizona Cardinals did well in their first two pre-season games. They won one game and lost one game. Their third pre-season game was this past weekend with the Cowboys and unfortunately they lost 34-13. The Cardinals did not play any of their starters saving them for the season. They have yet to announce who will be the starting quarterback. I'm hoping they will start Carson Beck. The regular season starts September 9 with the Seattle Seahawks hosting the New England Patriots,

The college football season starts Saturday, August 29.

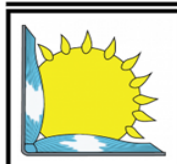

The Arizona Diamondbacks are in 3rd place in the NL West Division with a record of 69-62. The LA Dodgers are in 1st place in the NL West Division with a 80-51 record. The Atlanta Braves are in 1st place in the NL East Division with a record of 76-55. The Milwaukee Brewers are in 1st place in the NL Central Division with a 81-50 record. The Chicago Cubs are in 2nd place in the NL Central Division with a record of 77-56. The Cubs and the Brewers will play each other starting August 31 in a three game series. This series should be nail biter. The Tampa Bay Rays are in 1st place in the AL East Division with a record of 77-53. The Chicago White Sox are in 1st place in the AL Central Division with a 68-62 record. Both teams in Chicago are doing well this year. The Houston Astros are in 1st place in the AL West Division with a record of 65-66. There is only one more month of regular season for baseball. The Playoffs start on Tuesday, September 29th.

The National Hockey League regular season starts on September 29.

In the WNBA, the Phoenix Mercury is in 12th place in the Western Conference with a record of 13-24. The Indiana Fever is in 5th place in the Western Conference with a record of 25-14. WNBA playoffs start on September 27th.

NASCAR is going to be in Daytona, Florida on September 29 at the Daytona international Speedway. The Cup Playoff Series starts September 6 in Darlington at the Darlington Raceway.

As always, you can watch your favorite sports events at Anthony's Fisherman's Landing Bar. Until the next issue, my friends, keep watching sports

This month, we are taking a closer look at American author Debbie Macomber. With only a high school diploma and having struggled with dyslexia, Macomber's path to becoming a writer is a remarkable story of determination. She began her writing journey at her kitchen table, often drafting manuscripts while caring for her children. Her first successful novel, Heartsong, opened the door to a long career in romance and contemporary women's fiction. Married to Wayne Macomber since 1968, she is the mother of four children. The loss of her daughter Dale in 2011 deeply affected the family and has added emotional depth and compassion to her work. Beyond writing, Macomber is known for her philanthropy, supporting women's shelters, medical research, and mentoring aspiring writers. We invite you to explore our collection of her books here at the library.

The library also offers printing, internet, and faxing services.

The library is open Tuesday-Thursday-Saturday 10am-3pm.
